

Birmingham's Domestic Abuse

Community Grant Prospectus 2022-2023

"Changing Attitudes Changing Lives"

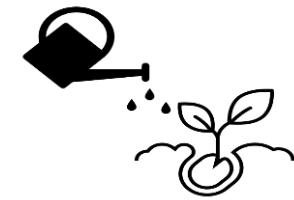

Making a positive difference everyday to people's lives

Part 4 of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 places a new duty on local authorities to ensure that all victims of domestic abuse have access to the right support within safe accommodation when they need it. In April 2021, as a tier one authority, Birmingham City Council was allocated £3.2m funding (12 months only) to fulfil this role.

As well as enhancing commissioned domestic abuse services and support within Birmingham, the funding looked to address other areas of need identified in Birmingham's Domestic Abuse Needs Assessment.

Growth and Recovery

Support within safe commissioned domestic abuse services

These include:

- Children's support
- Therapeutic support and counselling
- Support for those with 'complex' needs
- Support for those with protected characteristics
- Wider specialist support around housing, benefits, legal options etc.
- Specialist support for victims

Support through Community Grants Prospectus

These include:

- Support for victims with disabilities
- Support for children
- Specialist support for victims
- Support for those with protected characteristics
- Support for those with 'complex' needs
- Wider specialist support

Prevention and early intervention projects

These include:

- Groupwork with targeted victims raising awareness about domestic abuse
- Work in schools and with young people about healthy relationships
- Targeted community engagement for those with protected characteristics
